THE TWELVE STEPS OF NARCOTICS ANONYMOUS

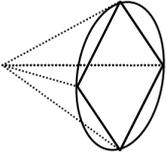

1. We admitted that we were powerless over our addiction, that our lives had become unmanageable.
2. We came to believe that a power greater than ourselves could restore us to sanity.
3. We made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understood Him.
4. We made a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves.
5. We admitted to God, to ourselves, and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs.
6. We were entirely ready to have God remove all these defects of character.
7. We humbly asked Him to remove our shortcomings.
8. We made a list of all persons we had harmed, and became willing to make amends to them all.
9. We made direct amends to such people wherever possible, except when to do so would injure them or others.
10. We continued to take personal inventory, and when we were wrong promptly admitted it.
11. We sought through prayer and meditation to improve our conscious contact with God, as we understood Him, praying only for knowledge of His will for us, and the power to carry that out.
12. Having had a spiritual awakening as a result of those steps, we tried to carry this message to addicts and to practice these principles in all our affairs.

Take my will and my life.

Guide me in my Recovery.

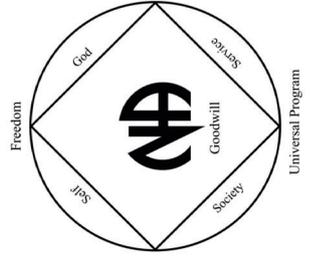

Show me how to live."

THE TWELVE TRADITIONS OF NARCOTICS ANONYMOUS

1. Our common welfare should come first; personal recovery depends on N.A. unity.
2. For our Group purpose there is but one ultimate authority - a loving God as He may express Himself in our group conscience, our leaders are but trusted servants, they do not govern.
3. The only requirement for membership is a desire to stop using.
4. Each Group should be autonomous, except in matters affecting other Groups, or N.A. as a whole.
5. Each Group has one primary purpose--to carry the message to the addict who still suffers.
6. An N.A. Group ought never endorse, finance, or lend the N.A. name to any related facility or outside enterprise, lest problems of money, property or prestige divert us from our primary purpose.
7. Every N.A. Group ought to be fully self-supporting, declining outside contributions.
8. Narcotics Anonymous should remain forever nonprofessional, but our service centers may employ special workers.
9. N.A., as such, ought never be organized; but we may create service boards or committees directly responsible to those they serve.
10. N.A. has no opinion on outside issues; hence the N.A. name ought never be drawn into public controversy.
11. Our public relations policy is based on attraction rather than promotion; we need always maintain personal anonymity at the level of press, radio, and films.
12. Anonymity is the spiritual foundation of all our Traditions, ever reminding us to place principles before personalities.

- C. Write how you could not control the circumstances that brought the event about, could not control the event itself, and could not control the consequences the event brought on, how it was unmanageable, and how you were powerless over it.
 - D. Continue to write your inventory daily until the step is revealed.
 - E. Write how you work this step. Write at least 15 different examples of how this step works in your life.
- III. Share everything with your sponsor.
- IV. If you sponsor feels you are ready, they will move you on to Step Two.

STEP FOUR

"We made a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves"

AN APPROACH TO THE FOURTH STEP INVENTORY

The purpose of a searching and fearless moral inventory is to sort through the confusion and the contradiction of our lives so that we can find out who we really are. We are starting a new way of life and need to be rid of the burdens and traps which have controlled us and prevented growth.

As we approach this step, most of us are afraid that there's a monster inside of us that, if released, will destroy us. This fear can cause us to put off our inventory or may even prevent us from taking this crucial step at all. We need to remember that fear is lack of faith; and now that we have found a loving, personal god to turn to we no longer need to be afraid.

We have been experts at self-deception and rationalization: by writing our inventory we can overcome these obstacles. A thorough written inventory will unlock parts of our subconscious which remain hidden when we simply think about or talk about who we are. Once it's all down on paper it's much easier to see, and much harder to deny our true nature. Honest self-assessment is one of the keys to our new way of life.

The only way to get clean is to stop using and the only way to take an inventory is to sit down and do it. Many specific inventory methods have been used successfully by our members. This inventory method has worked for some of us and can work for you if you'll follow through. Remember, you cannot write a bad inventory - only a better one, and you can write too little - but never too much.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. You will need a pad of paper of lined paper or a theme book, a pen, and a good dictionary.
2. Sit at a table or desk to write, make sure you have plenty of room and that you will not be unnecessarily interrupted.

Have I done anything to cause harm to myself or another today?
If so what?
Am I willing to change today?
Did I pray or meditate today? How did this affect my life?
What spiritual principles have I been able to practice in my life today?
Was the important thing in my life today staying clean?

JUST FOR TODAY I will be unafraid; my thoughts will be on my new associations - people who are not using and have found a new way of life. So long as I follow this way, I have nothing to fear.

Have I given of myself today without expecting anything in return?
Was there fear in my life today?
Did I feel intense joy or pain?
Did I call or visit someone in the Program today?
Did I pray for the well-being of another today?
Was I happy today? Have I been peaceful today?
Did I consciously remember that I have a choice today?

Dear God, show me what I have done right and wrong today. Show me how I can better live and serve Thy will tomorrow.

Did my disease run my life today? If so, how?
What did I do today that I wish I had not done?
What have I left undone that I wish I had done?
Was I good to myself today? How?
Was today a good day? Was I happy? Was I serene?

JUST FOR TODAY I will-have faith in someone in N.A. who believes in me and wants to help me in my recovery.

Did I talk to my sponsor today?

Did I attend a meeting today? Where?

Did I share my experiences, strengths and hopes?

Who are the people in my life that I trust today?

Who has trust in me today?

JUST FOR TODAY I will have a program; I will try to follow it to the best of my ability.

Did I read from our literature today?

What Steps did I consciously work?

Did I admit my powerlessness today?

Was I able to put my trust in my Higher Power today?

What did I learn about myself today?

Did I make any amends today? Do I owe any?

Did I admit fault to anyone today?

Did I worry about yesterday or tomorrow?

Can I accept myself as I am today?

JUST FOR TODAY through N.A. I will try to get a better perspective on my life.

Did I feel like I was a part of humanity today?

Did I allow myself to become obsessed by anything today?

What has God given me to be grateful for today?

3. In going through this guide look up the definition of any words that you do not know the meaning of.

4. When you are actually writing, leave a wide margin so that you can add or comment later

5. Try to write down what comes to you first and don't edit your inventory.

6. Don't worry about spelling or neatness: your inventory should be readable but doesn't have to be a work of art.

7. Do not erase or obliterate anything you write. Strike out "wrong" words or errors with a single line that can be read through.

8. If something "pops" into your head when you are working on something else write it down or make a not on a separate sheet so that you can return to it later Then get back to what you were doing before.

9. You are writing your inventory for you. At this point, the Fifth Step does not exist. Write down everything, even the things that you are unwilling to share. You can always take something out later, but by writing it down at least you will have a chance to see it more clearly.

10. Write until you have nothing left to write. Your inventory will probably take more than one sitting to write. Try to stop at the end of a section and start again as soon as possible.

I. RESENTMENT is the way most of us have reacted to the past. It is the reliving of past experiences again and again on our lives. The more often you have relived an event or gotten into "should have" and "if only" then the more significant that event probably is.

A. Write about each incident in your life which you have had to relive in your mind at some later date. This includes both "good" and "bad" experiences.

B. Write about past actions that you would change if you had the opportunity.

C. Write about any events in your life which you feel caused a change in you.

D. Write a dictionary definition and at least three sentences on each of the following as they have applied to people, places, things, and ideas.

self-pity	greed
pride	lust
contempt	intolerance
hatred	apathy
jealousy	inertia
envy	selfishness

II. ANGER is the way most of us have reacted to the present. It is our reaction to and denial of reality.

A. Write about the things that make you angry, irritate you, or make you feel uncomfortable. What are your "buttons" and how do they get "pushed"? Are there any key words, phrases, actions, or situations which are sure to "set you off"? The following is a list of some of the things that we often react to with anger. Some of these will apply to you and some will not. Use this list as a starting point and to get you thinking in terms of anger.

being criticized being contradicted being ignored being kidded practical jokes being laughed at being gossiped about or talked about being called names (stupid, fat, skinny, asshole, bastard, bitch, whore, etc.)
being touched being stood too close to being praised

III. Use the "Living The Program" IP every evening for 30 days, focusing on relationships, inner reactions, and how you deal with those inner reactions.

IV. Go over everything with your sponsor. If you don't understand, or are confused, ring your sponsor for guidance.

Living the Program IP:

LIVING THE PROGRAM

What Worked For Us: NA Daily Journal

The purpose of this daily inventory is to keep track of WHO WE ARE and WHAT WE ARE DOING -- today.

Try to answer every question, every day. Keep your answers as simple and as honest as you can. If you miss a day, do not make it up later.

Limit your answers and concerns to the past twenty-four hours and complete-the questions at the end of the day.

If you wish to share some of this journal, we suggest that you do so verbally.

Remember that a daily inventory is not a test; there are no right or wrong answers. Do not get upset if you could have done better or if you fail to live up to your expectations of yourself. Remember, this is a program of growth and recovery and if you are clean today, you are doing something right.

JUST FOR TODAY my thoughts will be on my recovery, living and enjoying life without the use of drugs.

Am I clean today?

How have I acted differently?

STEP TEN

“We continued to take personal inventory, and when we were wrong, promptly admitted it.”

I. Writing on Step Ten:

- A. Take each word individually and write down your understanding of the word.
- B. Look up each word in a good dictionary and write down the dictionary definition of the word.
- C. Wait 24 hours, and compare the two definitions. See how yours differed from the dictionary.
- D. Write what you have learned.
- E. Break the step down to the following parts:
 1. We continued
 2. To take
 3. Personal inventory
 4. And when we were wrong
 5. Promptly admitted it
- F. Write what each part means to you.

II. Writing Step Ten inventory:

- A. Write your definition of “wrong.”
- B. Write on “how” you admit something.

B. Write about each incident in your life when you have reacted “automatically” or for no apparent reason. Relate each incident to people, place, things, and ideas

III. FEAR is the way we have reacted to the future. It is our response to the unknown, a fantasy in reverse. Write at least three sentences on each of your fears -past and present (especially those you think are irrational or those which you think no longer bother you). The following is a list of fears.- Some of these will apply to you and some will not. Use this list as a starting point and to get you thinking in terms of fear.

responsibility	hurting others	stealing
past crimes	justice	pain
ego deflation	inferiority	obsessions
public speaking	claustrophobia	attack
suffocating	sarcasm	other races
water	mistakes	desire pride

IV. SEX is an area in which most of us have had problems. One of our old times sometimes refers to us "lovers in distress" and this is certainly true. Most of us carry a burden of false shame and false guilt because we have tried to live up to an unrealistic or false moral code.

A. Write about your "perfect" relationship (casual affair, lover, or spouse) and how your actual relationships have lived up to and fallen short of this ideal.

B. Write about your sexual fantasies and whether or not you have acted out on them

C. Write at least three sentences about each of the following sex related acts or desires that apply to you or that you have strong feelings about. Use this list as a starting point and add others you can think of.

- | | |

them. We do not have the right to cause them more harm in our attempt to gain relief from our guilt, shame or remorse. An indirect amend may be more appropriate.

III. BEFORE making any amends; go over everything with your sponsor. If you are unsure; ask your Sponsor for help.

STEP NINE

“We made direct amends to such people wherever possible, except when to do so would injure them or others.”

I. Writing on Step Nine:

- A. Look at each word individually and write down your understanding of each word.

- E. Break the step down to the following parts:
 1. We made
 2. Direct amends
 3. To such people wherever possible
 4. Except when to do so
 5. Would injure them or others
- F. Write what each part means to you.

II. Writing the Step Nine inventory:

- A. Go through the list. Write “why” you feel prepared to work step nine.
- B. Decide which amends will be direct and which will be indirect. The thing to consider is what effect a direct amends will have on

- V. ASSETS must also be considered if we are to get an accurate and complete picture of ourselves. This is very difficult for most of us because it is hard for us to accept that we have good qualities. We each have a combination of assets and liabilities and through this program we try to eliminate the negative and accentuate the positive.

- A. Write about each event in your life when you did something good without expecting anything in return.
- B. Write at least three sentences on each of the following assets of character assets that come to mind.

being clean	willingness
open-mindedness	humility
God awareness	friendship
love	self-acceptance
modesty	self-honesty
friendship	patience
self-acceptance	simplicity
honesty with others	courage

positive action	gratitude sharing promptness

VI. Answer the following QUESTIONS in writing.

1. How have you and how do you see yourself? (What is your self-image?)
2. What do you want to be when you grow up?
3. What do you want out of life?
4. What things have you done for acceptance that you really didn't want to do?
5. What things did you do while you were using that you find yourself unable to do today?

6. What can you do today that you couldn't do before?
7. What are your fantasies and dreams (other than sex)?
8. What is your definition of freedom?
9. Have you intentionally left anything out of your inventory?
10. Are there any events written in your inventory which never actually happened?
11. Is there anything else you can think of that specifically helps to make you you?
12. What fears and problems have occurred in the process of writing this inventory?
13. What is your definition of surrender?
14. How do boredom, isolation, and loneliness affect you and how do you deal with them?
15. What is your N.A. birthday?

Anyone who has some time in the program and who has worked these steps will tell us that the Fourth Step was a turning point in their lives. Ultimately we find out that we are just human, with the same fears, longings and troubles as everyone else. One of the greatest benefits of the N.A. program is discovering that we need never be alone again. Others have felt as we feel. Others have failed where we failed. They are here now in strength of the Fellowship, ready and eager to help us.

This Fourth Step can be a wonderful adventure, reviewing our past performance and our present behavior to see what we want to keep and what we want to be rid of. No one is forcing us to give up our misery. This Step has the reputation of being difficult. In reality, it's quite simple.

As recovering addicts, we now have the right to reach for levels of greater comfort and we can reach them by getting a handle on what we've been doing wrong. If we want to feel good, we have to stop doing the things that make us feel bad.

- I. Write on the difference between intentional and unintentional harm.
- J. Write how you affected them and your relationships.
- K. Write a list of all persons you have harmed, beginning with yourself. Write your reasons for having that person on the list i.e. what harm have you done them and was it intentional or unintentional. Also consider the consequences of your actions in their life. Don't justify or rationalize your way out of including anyone! In other words: Their name; action; effect on them; effect on you.
- L. Did you leave anyone off the list intentional or unintentional?
- III. Go over everything with your sponsor.

STEP EIGHT

“We made a list of all persons we had harmed, and became willing to make amends to them all.”

I. Writing on Step Eight:

- A. Look at each word individually and write down your understanding of the word.
- B. Look up each word in a good dictionary and write down the dictionary definition of the word.
- C. Wait 24 hours, and compare the two definitions. See how yours differed from the dictionary.
- D. Write what you have learned.
- E. Break the step down to the following parts:
 1. We made a list
 2. Of all persons
 3. We had harmed
 4. And became willing
 5. To make amends to them all
- F. Write what each part means to you.

II. Writing the Step Eight inventory:

- G. How do you reach the point of willingness for Step Eight?
- H. How will you prepare yourself spiritually for the list?

We are not going to be perfect. If we were perfect, we would not be human. The important thing is that we do our best. We use the tools available to us and we develop the ability to survive our emotions. We do not want to lose any of what we have gained; we want to continue in the program. It is our experience that no matter how searching and thorough, no inventory is of any lasting effect unless it is promptly followed by an equally thorough Fifth Step.

STEP FIVE

“We admitted to God, to ourselves, and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs.”

- I. Writing on Step Five:
 - A. Take each word individually and write down your understanding of the word.
 - B. Look up each word in a good dictionary and write down the dictionary definition of the word.
 - C. Wait 24 hours, and compare the two definitions. See how yours differed from the dictionary.
 - D. Write what you have learned.
 - E. Break the step down to the following parts:
 1. We admitted
 2. To God, to ourselves, and to another human being
 3. The exact nature
 4. Of our wrongs
 - F. Write what each part means to you.
- II. Go through your step four with a fine tooth comb. The idea is to look at it as if you are studying a subject (you). It is like looking in from the outside. Take each piece of writing individually, read it, think about it, write it again with no justification or rationalization. Look at your motives and actions, ask yourself “where does this stem from, what is it based in?” i.e. what happened, how you felt, and what

- D. Write daily inventory on how you reacted on shortcomings which happened in your daily affairs. Focus on the process (i.e. circumstances leading up to; the shortcomings; how you felt; how you reacted)...

The idea is to recognize that we are powerless over other people, situations and the way we feel (defects). But we do have a choice today in how we react. In Step 6 we became sick and tired of hurting ourselves and others by acting out on addiction; we became aware of certain patterns of behavior. Insanity is repeating the same mistakes, expecting different results. If we can accept that we are not powerful enough to change on pure will power alone, then we recognize that only God is powerful enough to help us change. This is a humbling experience for people with egos as large as ours! “We humbly asked Him to remove our shortcomings.” We hand it over.

- E. Write 10 examples how you have turned your shortcoming over to the care of God.
- F. Write what you have learned.
- III. Go over everything with your sponsor.

STEP SEVEN

“We humbly asked Him to remove our shortcomings.”

I. Writing on Step Seven:

- A. Look at each word and write down your understanding of the word.
- B. Look up each word in a good dictionary and write down the dictionary definition of the word.
- C. Wait 24 hours, and compare the two definitions. See how yours differed from the dictionary.
- D. Write what you have learned.
- E. Break the step down to the following parts:
 1. We humbly (how do we get humble?)
 2. Asked Him
 3. To remove
 4. Our shortcomings
- F. Write what each part means to you.

II. Writing the Step Seven inventory:

- A. Write 10 examples on humility in your daily life and how you practice faith.
- B. Write 10 examples of how you approach God with your problems (i.e. handing it over with humility).
- C. Read Steps 6 & 7 from the Basic Text and The Grey Book.

you wanted to achieve by your actions. The exact nature of the wrong is the motivator.

Search out feelings of fear, rejection, low self esteem and low self worth, observe the by-products of rebellion, anger etc. all based in total self-centeredness

It is by studying our inventory that we are able to find out why we do what we do. It is when we understand our actions that we can deal with them constructively. Only by admitting our wrong behavior can we open the door which will change us for the better.

STEP SIX

“We were entirely ready to have God remove all these defects of character”

I. Writing on Step Six:

- A. Take each word individually and write down your understanding of the word.
- B. Look up each word in a good dictionary and write down the dictionary definition of the word.
- C. Wait 24 hours, and compare the two definitions. See how yours differed from the dictionary.
- D. Write what you have learned.
- E. Break the step down to the following parts:
 1. We were
 2. Entirely ready
 3. To have God
 4. Remove all these defects
 5. Of character
- F. Write what each part means to you.

II. Writing the Step Six inventory:

- A. Write your definition of willingness, and examples of how you apply it in your life

- B. Write daily inventory on events were your defeats controlled your life. Examine the part you play in the defeat; remember that you are powerless over other people; do not blame others for the way you feel or behave; and free yourself of rationalization and justification.

Focus on the way you feel, (i.e. fear of humiliation, rejection, not getting your own way, betrayal, violence etc.) or hurt.

Recognize the total self centeredness. Examine the by-product of these emotions, using the list of defects from the “Step Four” guide, to recognize how you are affected.

The point of this step is to become aware of how our defects control us, usually hurting ourselves most of all. When we can recognize our patterns, we usually become sick of our behavior. Then we “become entirely ready to have God remove all these defects of character.”

- C. Make a list of your character defects and your willingness to allow God to remove them. Possibly include superiority/inferiority.
- D. How do we allow God to remove defects of character? 10 examples.
- III. Go over everything with your sponsor. If you don't understand, or are confused, ring your sponsor for guidance.
